

Close Reading Practice

Use quotations and page numbers from the novel to support your responses.

Answer the following in note form.

Section 1 Chapters 1-3 (pp. 1-32)

1. Who is telling the story, and from what point of view?
2. Describe the setting (place, time, mood).
3. What kind of person is Atticus Finch?
4. Describe the type of education Scout gets from school. Comment not only on her academic learning, but also on what she learns about life. What are some of her learning experiences at home?
5. Compare the Cunninghams with the Ewells.
6. Describe the relationship between Scout and Atticus. Would you like a similar relationship with your parents?

Close Reading Practice

Use quotations and page numbers from the novel to support your responses.

Answer the following in note form.

Section 1 Chapters 1-3 (pp. 1-32)

1. Who is telling the story, and from what point of view?
2. Describe the setting (place, time, mood).
3. What kind of person is Atticus Finch?
4. Describe the type of education Scout gets from school. Comment not only on her academic learning, but also on what she learns about life. What are some of her learning experiences at home?
5. Compare the Cunninghams with the Ewells.
6. Describe the relationship between Scout and Atticus. Would you like a similar relationship with your parents?

Close Reading Practice

Use quotations and page numbers from the novel to support your responses.

Answer the following in note form.

Section 1 Chapters 1-3 (pp. 1-32)

1. Who is telling the story, and from what point of view?
2. Describe the setting (place, time, mood).
3. What kind of person is Atticus Finch?
4. Describe the type of education Scout gets from school. Comment not only on her academic learning, but also on what she learns about life. What are some of her learning experiences at home?
5. Compare the Cunninghams with the Ewells.
6. Describe the relationship between Scout and Atticus. Would you like a similar relationship with your parents?